Dun Dun 🙄

There it is. The only possible date this year (and it was not easy to acquire, you may thank my wife with - flowers-.. err scratch that. I mean fantasy books or computer hardware):

Date: 26. Sep - 28. Sep 2014

Location: 72178 Waldachtal (Germany)

We've rooms, tents, mattresses, camp beds and even a place in the hay. It's your own pick. First come first served.

You may also attend with your own tent/bed/caravan/whatsoever but it's not required for everybody. There's plenty of space (even parking space). And free (that's free, not necessary fast) wifi all over the place.

You should bring your own laptop in case of maxr playing though.

There will be barbecue, beer and girls (well, my daughter will become 1 year old on the 15th 🙄) and a damn lot of maxr talking. Your chance to peek behind the curtains.

What I need from any attendee (PM or beko@maxr.org):

- Your ETA
- Your mobile phone number where I can reach you while you're searching for the location, so keep the bugger loaded and on-line
- Food you can't|don't eat (allergy or phobia, don't care what exactly)
- 20 EUR for expenses in cash on site (that should be fair for meals and beer)
- What you need for a place to sleep (the less the better, of course :D, but we can cover plenty)
- Any special wish we should keep in mind for you (may even be granted)
- Shuttle service: We can organize a shuttle service from airport Stuttgart or train station Horb - lemme know

..and I want to know that you want to attend before you step on my lawn, or my wife may totally kill me since she couldn't plan food according to numbers.

A hint for the people afraid of the traveling costs: Drop me a PM. We may have a solution for you since I've a small backup for such cases. Don't be ashamed to ask. I'll keep it to myself. We don't want to miss a maxr supportive because of gorram money.

Oh yeah.. early arriver on Friday will be forced into labor - so be early if you are into such stuff.

That'd be all. Questions are open now. Please step in a neat line and I'll try my best to serve your desires

Great ! I will PM you soon! Since I don't have a car, coming to you might be a bit difficult, but let me see first.

Great! 😊

Let me check my calendar in a few days, but iirc I have time on that weekend. So count me in 😊

All times are GMT +02:00.
